Instructions for Completing the Business Activity Report

General Instructions

The Business Activity Report (BAR) must be completed and submitted within 90 days following the end of your fiscal year. All BARs must be submitted online.

If the BAR is being submitted on behalf of a sole proprietorship, the broker must complete and submit the report. If the BAR is being submitted on behalf of a real estate corporation, the corporation's designated officer must complete and submit the report.

If you have trouble submitting or saving the report, please try other browsers or more updated browsers.

Login

Enter your DRE license number, birth date, and the last four digits of your social security number. All entities associated with your broker's license number will be listed. You can access and complete the BAR for each entity from this entry point.

Data Entry

Enter zero for no activity; do not leave entries blank. Round principal amounts to the nearest dollar and round interest rates to three decimal points.

Make sure you check the data entered in the report as you will be attesting to its accuracy and the report will be made final upon submission.

Certification

Enter the name of the broker or designated officer submitting the report in the signature box. Enter also the corresponding DRE license number, NMLS ID number (if it did not auto-populate), business telephone number, email address, and alternate telephone number.

Brokers who are required to complete Part B of the BAR will sign and certify at the end of Part B.

Saving the Report

You will have three options for saving or completing the report:

1. Save & Submit - The report will be made final and submitted to DRE.
2. Save for Later - The unfinished report will be saved for 21 days to allow you to finish and submit the report later. The data will be lost if the report is not submitted within the 21-day period. Spaces left blank will be auto-populated with zeroes. Upon reopening the report, the zeroes will be highlighted for your review.
3. Logout - No data or changes will be saved.

Printing the Report

You can print and save PDF versions of a report to your personal files after it has been submitted. To do this, log in to the Business Activity Reporting System, then select the entity desired from the list of licensees and affiliated corporations and click "Continue". You can then save or print a PDF version of your submitted report.

Penalties

Failure to file the report in a timely fashion may result in an audit and disciplinary action against your license.

Broker Information

Entity name, main office address, fiscal year end date, DRE license number, and NMLS ID number may be auto-populated based on your log-in information. You can change your main office address by submitting the RE 204 or RE 204A form to DRE.

Make sure your fiscal year end date is entered to enable submission.

If branch locations have been auto-populated, check the boxes for applicable locations. You can add a branch location by submitting the RE 203 form to DRE.

Check all forms of media you used to advertise real estate-related activities.
